

We are excited to welcome your family to the wonderful world of dance at the TMJ School of Dance!

The TMJ School of Dance is a leading institution for dance training. We are committed to addressing opportunity gaps and inequities by providing affordable access and support to students and families in middle- and low-income communities. Our goal is to equip students with the skills and knowledge they need to teach, perform, and innovate in the diverse field of dance.

The TMJ School of Dance is the official school of the TMJ Dance Project, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to using the art of dance to empower the lives of children and families in historically underserved communities.

Spring Training Academy

The Spring Training Academy is a pre-professional training program for students aged 4 to 13 who want to develop fundamental dance techniques. The academy aims to improve students' skills through a combination of dance theory, technical proficiency, and artistic expression.

Advancement to the next training level depends on the successful completion of student examinations, consistent class performance, and regular attendance.
